

Dear Taekwon-do Friends,

Polish Taekwon-do ITF HQ Korea, a member of the International Taekwon-Do Federation ITF HQ Korea, cordially invites all practitioners of Taekwon-Do to the Open European Championship, which will take place between the 05-07 of October 2018 in the beautiful city of Strzegom.

The championships will be carried out in accordance with the rules of the International Taekwon-Do Federation (HQ KOREA) and aim to:

- Provide a fair and safe environment for competition
- Popularize and further develop Taekwon-Do,
- Raise the level of sports competition between leading players,
- Promote a healthy lifestyle, involving children and youths who practice sports,
- Promote tolerance and good relationships between people of different nationalities,
- Strengthen inter-regional and international relations,
- Create distractions from stimulants e.g. smoking, alcoholism and drug addiction,
- Summarize and promote the results of the ITF Taekwon-do development in Poland in recent years.

Accommodation:

STRZEGOM

Strzegom is a historic city in the Lower Silesia Voivodship, located by the route no. 5, between Wrocław and Jelenia Góra, north of Świdnica.

Strzegom is surrounded by the Strzegomskie Hills with the highest hill - Góra Krzyżowa (354 m above sea level).

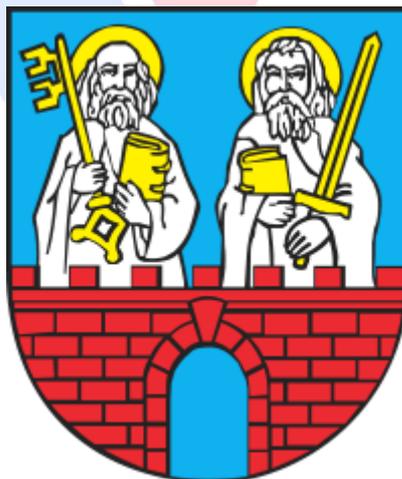

The beginnings of Strzegom date back to the early Middle Ages, there was a settlement around the 10th century.

Today, Strzegom is known as a large stonemasonry center with Strzegom granite and basalt mines. Often, Strzegom granite is used in Poland and in Europe, for example in the construction of the Westerplatte Monument in Gdańsk, the Silesian Insurgents' Monument in Katowice, a monument in the Grunwald fields or the Palace of Justice in The Hague.

In Strzegom, there was a branch of the Gros-Rosen concentration camp.

Monuments in Strzegom

- Basilica of the Holy. Piotr and Paweł, ul. Kościelna - one of the largest and most beautiful Gothic buildings in Lower Silesia, the temple began to be built in the 13th century
 - City walls, ul. Kamienna - fragments of 13th-century defensive walls preserved in Strzegom, best preserved in the western part near the Park, with the Dziobowa Gate (Ptasia)
 - Market Tower, Market Square - the former town hall tower from the 14th century, the only preserved medieval fragment of the Market Square, a Renaissance balustrade on the roof of the tower, in 1999 a modern roof covered with reinforced glass was added, the height of the tower is about 35 m
 - Historic houses and townhouses
 - auxiliary church of Saint Barbara, ul. Kościelna - former synagogue from the end of the 14th century, today it serves Catholics, a small one-nave gothic church
 - Monastery of the Elizabethans
 - Carmelite Monastery - Carmelite band with the Church of the Holy Savior of the World and Our Lady of the Scapular
 - Chapel of St. Antoni - a Gothic chapel built as a defensive and sacred object, at the New Gate in the fifteenth century
- Atrakcje in Strzegom
- City Park, ul. Parkowa - green part of the city with city walls
 - Góra Krzyżowa - the highest hill of the Strzegom Hills
 - Quarries.
